

KJ Denhert -- Girl Like Me . . . CD . . .
Mother Cyclone, 2003

Folksy soul from KJ Denhert -- a wonderful mix of acoustic guitars, soulful rhythms, and honest vocals that have an earthy tone, but a sophisticated outlook. KJ's been playing in and around New York for years, and the album's got a very solid, very professional approach -- one that balances all the elements of the music just right, without falling into cliché on either side of the fence, and really getting at the best part of KJ's unique sound. She bills herself as an "urban folk & jazz artist" -- and we couldn't think of a better way to put it! Titles include "Silence Was Deafening", "Little Mary", "Violet", "Girl Like Me", "She Loves You", "How Many Ways", "Red July", and "I Like Your Face". (From the NuSoul CD page.)
